

Don't change the Indiana Telephone Privacy law to lessen my protection. It has made a big difference where I hardly recieve any telemarketing calls. My son no longer asks the caller if they're trying to sell us something. Evenings at home are much more enjoyable. Thanks.